

441—167.1(232) Definitions.

“Allowable costs” means those expenses of the county or multicounty related to the establishment, improvements, operation, and maintenance of county or multicounty juvenile detention homes.

“County or multicounty” means that the governing body is a county board of supervisors or a combination of members of participating county boards of supervisors.